MEMBER BENEFITS

Membership chair, Dr. Ming Chen, is working on several initiatives intended to benefit members. First, a discount program by and for members, which would promote members' businesses and save patron-members some money. The program would involve use of a membership card which members would present at participating businesses and receive a discount. In order to publicize the program, there would be a pamphlet listing participating Chamber member-owned businesses and the discount amount and terms. Members can join (or withdraw from) the program at any time, and announcements would be made on the Chamber's new Website as well as in The Lantern. Deadline for initial sign-ups for the discount program pamphlet is Monday, September 16. Ming is also looking for people interested in underwriting printing of the pamphlet.

Second, in order to increase communication among Chamber members and to publicize your businesses, the Chamber will begin to include classified ads or announcements in The Lantern. Any member interested in placing an ad or announcement on a first come, first served basis should contact the Chamber. One-time ads or announcements will be free while a fee may be imposed for recurring ads or announcements.

Finally, planning is under way for a late afternoon/early evening member business expo to be led later this year at the Honolulu Country Club. To be held in the ballroom, there would be room for up to 30 tables for Chamber members to promote their business or services. A fee would be charged for those who wish to display, with a lower fee for members compared to non-members. There would also be heavy pupu and a no-host bar, door prizes, and of course an opportunity to network. There would also be a nominal entrance fee of $5.00 for members and $10.00 for non-members to defray the cost of the pupu. Once plans have been firmed up, details will be provided in The Lantern.

As part of its 75th anniversary celebration, the Honolulu Academy of Arts Theater will be showing "Intimate Stories from China: A Contemporary Chinese Film Series," sponsored in part by the Hawaii Chinese Civic Association. As a part of our Chamber's theme of sharing our talents and expertise, we would like our members, especially new members, to share their talents with other members by working on a committee. Anyone interested in writing can work on The Lantern or on the Narcissus souvenir book; anyone interested in computers can work with the technology committee on the Chamber's Website; and anyone interested in advertising, publicity, art work, cooking demonstration, event coordinator or program coordinator can share their talents with the Chamber.

The growth of the Chamber depends on people. We are looking not only for new members generally, but also members who in time can take over a leadership position in the Chamber. Thus, we turn to our current members to recruit others to join the Chamber with a view of them not only being good members, but members who someday will lead the Chamber to greater heights. Please give the names of such potential members to Dr. Ming Chen, our membership chair, and he will personally contact them about membership.

The Chamber is presently looking into the possibility of a "Chamber Business Expo" to showcase our members and their business activities. Opportunities for sponsorship, for tables to showcase your business, for working on a committee are all available. Please contact the Chamber office on the level of your participation. We are looking forward to a business expo in a setting such as a country club wherein, with pupu in hand, we can network among our members, guests, and potential members.

A committee headed by long-time member Leonard Kam is working on the Dr. Sun Yat-sen Festival at the Chinese Cultural Plaza in October where the Chinese community can pay homage to Dr. Sun and learn more about his efforts and success in building a new China.

In the meantime, the technology committee, headed by Justin Goo, is putting together an exciting Website for the Chamber, which we hope to launch soon. A sneak preview of the Website shows that it will be a communication hub for the entire Chinese community, both locally as well as internationally.

The Narcissus Festival committees are working diligently to start the 54th Festival. As of publication time for this month's Lantern, there are fifteen contestants who will vie for the coveted title of Narcissus Queen. We are looking forward to an exciting Narcissus Festival and Queen Pageant.

Dragon Boat Races

The 7th annual AT&T Dragon Boat Races were held on Saturday and Sunday, August 3-4, at Ala Moana Park. The Chamber crew competed in the Cup Race Division on Saturday. The Chamber's boat handily won the first heat, then was outrowed in the second heat. Among those participating were Chamber President Reuben Wong who set the pace for the rowers on the drum and Tiffany Choy, daughter of Michele and Bernard Choy, who was the flag catcher. Many Chamber board members were there to cheer the crew on. And thanks go to the Wong Foundation for sharing their large tent as well as providing food and liquid refreshments and to Ideal Properties (Gifford and Kelfred Chang) who provided T-shirts for each of the Chamber paddlers.

NARCISSUS CONTESTANT ORIENTATION

by Terrill Chock

The 54th annual Narcissus Festival had its "unofficial" beginning this past Thursday, August 22, with the Festival's orientation program for the Queen pageant contestants at the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

Michelle Loo, chairperson of our Queen Search Committee brought together fifteen lovely young ladies who will be contestants for our upcoming Narcissus Queen Festival. Yu Shing Ting emceed the evening's program and introduced the contestants to the audience, which was comprised of the contestants' friends and family members as well as members of the Narcissus Festival Executive Committee. Michelle is commended for doing an excellent job in recruiting these young ladies, who will undoubtedly add to the excitement of the events that they will be featured in. The festival's next event will be the Kickoff Reception, which will be held at the Hilton Hawaiian Village on Wednesday, November 6, at 6:30 p.m.

CHAMBER'S VISITORS

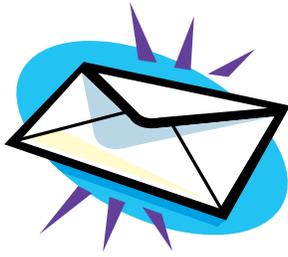

August 12, 2002

- Mr. Song Junji, Mayor of Tenglai Shandong Province, China and delegation of four

A Jiangsu delegation of 6, led by Mr. Zhao Shaolin, Senior Advisor to Jiangsu Provincial Government, visits Hawaii for August 27-29, 2002, and Reuben Wong, President and other officers of the Chinese Chamber warmly receive the delegation.

For those locals who venture to Las Vegas for sightseeing, shopping, meal deals, big name entertainment, conventions or even gambling, and get withdrawal symptoms because they haven't had a plate lunch for days or even hours, you're in luck! Eddie Flores, Jr., and Kwock Yum Kam were pictured in the "Dining Out" section of the August 4 issue of the Honolulu Advertiser, apparently in their newly opened "L&L Hawaiian Barbecue" in Henderson, a mere 15 miles from the Strip. According to the article, Henderson (not Las Vegas?) is the fastest growing large city in the U.S. and the second largest city in Nevada. Apparently, it's also the home of quite a few Hawaii expatriates, presumably drawn by inexpensive homes, a lower cost of living, and no state income tax.

Wesley Fong and his wife, Linda, were pictured at a benefit for the Arthritis Foundation in the August 14 issue of Midweek.

Looks like the "rumors" at last month's Chamber board meeting are true. Chamber director and auditor Elvira Lo is getting married on Saturday, October 5.
